- (b) used for purposes other than those established by the originator;
- (c) disclosed to any third State or international organisation without the prior written consent of the originator and an appropriate agreement or arrangement for the protection of classified information with the third State or international organisation concerned.

2. The principle of originator consent shall be respected by each Party in accordance with its constitutional requirements, national laws and regulations.

Such measures shall ensure the confidentiality, integrity, availability and, where applicable, non-repudiation and authenticity of classified information as well as an appropriate level of accountability and traceability of actions in relation to that information.

Article 8

The Parties shall provide one another, upon request, with relevant information about their respective security rules and regulations.

Article 9

1. The Parties shall take all appropriate measures, in accordance with their respective national laws and regulations, to investigate cases where it is known or where there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that classified information within the scope of this Agreement has been compromised or lost.
2. A Party which discovers a compromise or loss shall, through the appropriate channels, immediately inform the originator of such an occurrence and subsequently inform the originator of the final results of the investigation and of the corrective measures taken to prevent a recurrence. Upon request, any other relevant Party may provide investigative assistance.
